HOUSING DETAILS

Dorm: Your group is divided into male and female groups. Each of the two groups group will receive one dorm. Additional dorm units will be assigned only as the previous units are filled to capacity. These units sleep between four and ten guests in single sized bunk beds, and are equipped with one or two bathrooms depending on size.

Family Lakeside/Hillside Bunkroom: These cabin units also sleep between four and ten guests in single sized bunk beds and are equipped with one or two bathrooms depending on size. The pricing is specifically structured (for families or couples only) to make it more affordable for them to stay together in one cabin. Lakeside cabins are next to the lake with easy access to the waterfront and Dining Hall. Hillside cabins are up the hill and are closer to the gym and Sports fields.

Carnelian/Jacinth Bunkroom: These cabin units sleep up to 7 guests with a double bed and 5 single beds per unit. They are equipped with one bathroom per unit. The pricing is specifically structured (for families or couples only) to make it more affordable for them to stay together in one cabin.

Diamond Luxury: These condo style units are equipped either with a double bed and a private bath or a double bed, two twin sized bunk beds in a separate room, and a private bath. Diamond units come with full linens (sheets, blankets, towels). Every Diamond unit has a lake view.

Conference fee: This fee comes into effect if members of your group wish to participate in your programs at Berea, but prefer to come for one day or secure their own off-camp housing.

*Linens are NOT included in the price of any style housing (except Diamond) but are available at a rate of $5 a person.
